

Tango by Cherie Dori
Harold Steven's Jewelers

Jewelry that can be worn day or night speaks to the virtues of both usefulness and transcending beauty.

Whether worn on a casual day of shopping or during an elegant romantic evening, the Tango, an 18-karat white and yellow gold necklace set with round diamonds by Cherie Dori, is equally appropriate. It is unique in its style, versatility and finishing. The "circle of life" design is beautifully crafted—from its uncommon textured and brushed yellow gold to its highly polished, flowing white gold sprinkled with diamonds, this necklace not only accessorizes but defines style. Its design transcends age.

This beautiful necklace can be found exclusively at Harold Steven's Jewelers downtown. The 27-year-old store prides itself on its vast selection of high-quality merchandise and a friendly, no-pressure atmosphere. The team at Harold Steven's is happy to explain the unique characteristics of your diamonds, and how to compare your stone to the grading reports. And while it's possible to buy gemstones online in this day and age, there's no substitute for speaking to experts and being able to see and touch the gems in person.
